Tracy Arrington Studios Accepted into Prestigious New Designer Gallery at JA New York Summer 2015 Trade Show

July 27, 2015 – Apopka, FL – Tracy Arrington Studios has been selected as one of 10 talented designers selected by JA New York who will be making their debut in the Summer 2015 New Designer Gallery at JA New York. These designers were selected from a number of applicants based upon their distinct point of view and design acumen. This year also represents a first: all 10 designers are women!

Tracy Arrington says “It is an honor to have been selected from such a wonderfully talented group of applicants, and to be able to stand here with 9 other incredible women in this prestigious pavilion which has historically served as a launching pad for designers into the fine jewelry market. I am excited to share my designs with the jewelry industry.”

The JA New York New Designer Gallery has launched designers such as David Yurman, Penny Preville, and Alex Sepkus. According to Drew Lawsky, Group Show Director for JA New York Shows, “With a long history launching the careers of some of the most well-known names in fine jewelry, the New Designer Gallery represents our commitment to uncovering talent, and providing our retailers with the rising stars of the design community.”

To see our line which includes 10 collections and over 375 individually hand-crafted items, please visit us at booth NDG6 at JA New York July 26-28, 2015, or visit our website at www.TracyArringtonStudios.com.

About Tracy Arrington Studios

Tracy Arrington earned a Bachelor of Arts degree from Jacksonville University and spent 20 years in the business world, including 12 years as a buyer and merchandiser. In 2008 she decided to follow her passion and started working in metals. A member of the Florida Society of Goldsmiths, she received her formal training from the jewelry design and fabrication program at Winter Park Technical Institute in Central Florida and has continued to study under many talented goldsmiths across the country. Tracy describes herself as having a passion for designing beautiful jewelry. Surrounding herself with an array of precious metals and gemstones, Tracy uses her creative talent to develop new designs and expand on best-sellers, looking at trends for cues, but remaining true to her design style.

About JA New York

The JA New York jewelry show is the premier international jewelry event that brings exhibitors and retailers from around the world together in the glamorous backdrop of New York City. The JA New York shows date back to 1906 when its predecessor, the American National Retail Jewelers of America (ANRJA) was founded. The legacy of the ANRJA show has been carried through JA New York, as it celebrates 109 years of excellence and service to the jewelry industry. The JA New York shows are produced by Emerald Expositions, a world-class trade show producer. The JA New York shows are also the only shows affiliated with Jewelers of America, the largest and most respected jewelry retailer association in the U.S.
